

Peter Pan Punctuation Worksheet

Punctuation Worksheet

A computer generated grammar quiz based on the book Peter Pan Punctuation Worksheet. You need to read the questions and insert the correct punctuation and capital letters.

My computer program isn't very good, so please can you give this an adult first to check that the answers are correct. Errors to look out for

- A lot of quotes books are more than one sentence long, the program only extracts the first or last sentence so you'll need to add the opening/closing quotation mark
- The books I'm searching quite often use a — instead of a comma, but in other cases a — is the correct punctuation, please check each case
- Some of the answers start with a full stop. Ignore this
- Some of the books contain errors, so strange numbers may appear in the answers

- 1 No.” There was a break in his voice, as if for a moment he recalled innocent days when—but he brushed away this weakness with his hook.
- 2 Of course I could do it again, and make it best out of three; however, perhaps fairest to stick to the lagoon.
- 3 It must have been not less than ten o'clock by the crocodile, when he suddenly sat up in his bed, wakened by he knew not what.
- 4 As he stood on the bulwark looking over his shoulder at Peter gliding through the air, he invited him with a gesture to use his foot.
- 5 Hook let his cloak slip softly to the ground, and then biting his lips till a lewd blood stood on them, he stepped into the tree.
- 6 “She says she won't!” Nibs exclaimed, aghast at such insubordination, whereupon Peter went sternly toward the young lady's chamber.
- 7 He gave his hat to Liza, who took it scornfully; for she had no imagination, and was quite incapable of understanding the motives of such a man.
- 8 I can't help crowing, Wendy, when I'm pleased with myself.” Still she would not look up, though she was listening eagerly.
- 9 “Silence all,” he called gloatingly, “for a mother's last words to her children.” At this moment Wendy was grand.
- 10 “Second to the right,” said Peter, “and then straight on till morning.” “What a funny address!” Peter had a sinking.
- 11 ” “Ay, ay, sir.” “There is one thing,” Peter continued, “that every boy who serves under me has to promise, and so must you.” John paled.
- 12 “Are you glad, John?” “Of course I am.” “Are you glad, Nibs?” “Rather.” “Are you glad, Twins?” “We are glad.” “Oh dear,” sighed Wendy.
- 13 Yet her face was impassive; she was the daughter of a chief, she must die as a chief's daughter, it is enough.
- 14 Really there were whole weeks when, except perhaps with a stocking in the evening, she was never above ground.
